Are You Bilious?

If so, you know the symptoms—Loss of appetite, headache, dizziness, nausea, and vomiting, frequently meaning prostration for one or more days in frequent regular attacks. With a little more care in the matter of diet, they should be avoided.

The Aspirin Situation

Don't Be Deceived
by Aspirin advertisements being run by those who seek to discredit all Aspirin Tablets except those made by them.

The Facts Are

that we regularly handle large quantities of Aspirin U. D. C. Tablets that we know are Pure and Genuine. They are rigidly tested by first-class chemists and are put out by a firm of the very highest standing, the United Drug Company of Boston.

AMONG THE FARMERS.

The Cuckoo.
I think, of all the garden pests, the cuckoo is the most annoying. It always lays the biggest egg. This is why it is so annoying. It always lays the biggest egg. This is why it is so annoying.

Blueberry Culture Again.
Blueberries as large as Concord grapes have been produced through hybridization. Introduction of the blueberry into agriculture has more than doubled the acreage of this fruit in the state.

After a lingering illness of several years, Mrs. Doris Jordan passed away Sunday morning at her home in this village at the age of 66 years. Mrs. Jordan's maiden name was Turner and she was born in Auburn to John and Mary Turner, who died 22 years ago, after which she removed from Auburn to this village, where she made her home with the late Mrs. Emma T. Cummings, her sister, and has continued to occupy the place since the death of Mrs. Cummings.

The leaves on the graves of Mrs. Turner and her husband, Rev. Henry H. Carlson of this village, and the interment was at Pine Grove cemetery, where she lies beside the remains of her late husband.

"The Old Peabody Pew" dramatized by Edw. Dugan, will be given at the church in Paris on August 10th under the management of Mrs. H. W. Lyon and Miss Harriette Winslow. This play is given by the author every summer at the old church in Hollis and has put people on the map, so to speak, for its quaint and unique that many people make it a point to see it year after year.
